

SMALL GROUP LEADERS IN A PINCH

It may happen that for a given time a leader may not be able to attend or lead their small group. It may also happen, that for whatever reason, a substitute leader from within the group is unable to be found. IF this happens, the list of people in the chart below have let their names stand as what we call Leaders in a Pinch – you’re in a pinch and they’re willing to help out.

These are all regular members of our congregation. There is a breadth of experience and wisdom within this group of people. You’ll be in good hands.

When approaching a “Pinch Leader” it will be helpful for you to have good information to share with them about:

- Who you are as a group
- The expected time commitment (length of meetings, frequency of meetings, duration of need)
- What your group time entails
- What material you’re currently studying
 - Are you committed to carrying on with that?
 - Are you willing to take a break from that while your regular leader is away?
